Thanksgiving

As Thanksgiving thoughts turn to the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, we offer a couple of different views of the old familiar magnets of tourist interest. Above is a view of the stone canopy that protects the legendary Plymouth Rock. This view is possible, courtesy of the rip rap enclosure that forms a breakwater for the protection of an anchorage opposite the Mayflower II and Plymouth Rock. This giant curve of

If you want to meet the world, visit Plymouth any month of the year and you will see people, obviously of different cultures, singly and in groups, all of them back to the beginnings of our culture. There is something that we enjoy that is universal in interest. These people come from all over the world to see where it started in great hardship and sacrifice.

MILES STANDISH MONUMENT (COVER)

Just north of Plymouth you pass through the town of Duxbury which winds around the shore of Plymouth Bay. The Miles Standish Monument is situated atop a knoll-like hill in a grove of tall trees. A narrow road spirals upward through the grove to the granite shaft which is visible for miles. Inside, there is an iron spiral staircase which winds to the top. A couple of decades or so ago, in one of our better times when people could use and enjoy landmarks without spoiling them, this monument was open to the public so the climb could be made to the top windows just under the statue of Miles Standish. From these windows there is a spectacular view of the ocean and bay towards Plymouth. The monument is closed now, so that this view is forever gone to the people who visit but the grove is there to enjoy and the monument is impressive. Our cover picture was taken at the ground level at the knoll top and well back from the base of the monument with a 200 mm telephoto. It is a long way up to where Miles Standish looks to the sea back to the Pilgrims' origins. In the summer months the park is open to cars, but even when closed it is possible to walk in and up the paved path to the monument which is on a state reservation.

Special Town Meeting, Jan.10

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
NOVEMBER 15, 1988-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

One of the articles on the warrant for the January 10th Special Town Meeting is the request of Highway Surveyor Wesley N. Bowman for a new front end loader.

At a previous meeting, Mr. Bowman stressed the unsafe condition of the obsolete 1965 loader, specifically the brakes and fuel leaks. At that time he recommended purchase of a Caterpillar model with the ability to interchange the buckets and plows making it a more valuable piece of equipment for the town. The total cost to purchase under a lease/option to purchase agreement would be $3,300 per month to lease with a cost of about $75,000 to purchase.

Mr. Bowman said leasing at the present time with funds taken from the highway department budget is absolutely necessary, as this equipment is used very often. Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming gave the opinion the expense is a legal one of emergency for use of the budget monies. The money used now for leasing would be reimbursed at the special town meeting, if voted favorably, counsel said. Selectmen agreed to continue the leasing.

On another matter, the Highway Surveyor informed Selectmen he has the chance to buy a 1979 small used truck, which is the same model as the one owned now that is in inoperable condition. The cost is $1,400 and can be used for parts for the sander truck. The present one is in fine body condition but the insides are all shot.

Selectmen gave their approval to purchase the used truck with funds from the highway budget.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH Fire Chief Donald C. Wood to discuss the continuing problem of the boiler breakdown at the fire station.

Selectmen Chairman William F. Hubbard said the donation of labor to remove the old boiler and install a new donated boiler will enable the situation to be cleared up sooner. He did not divulge the name of the donor of the labor at this time.

Because of this labor donation, Selectmen

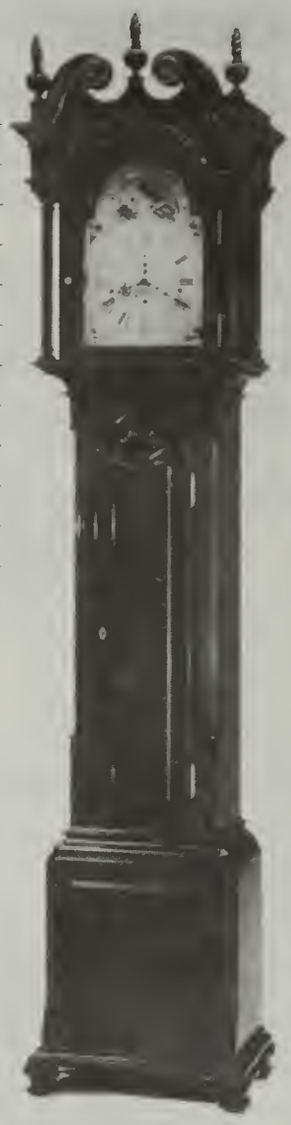
GODDARD



Inspired by the delicate designs and carvings of the famous clock maker, John Goddard, this antique reproduction style grandfather clock measures time with ageless elegance. Crafted of the finest cherry solids and veneers, the case displays Goddard's love for detail — in the three flame carved finials gracing the bonnet, the carved shell on the locking wooden front door and the beautiful carved feet. Goddard's tradition of fine detail is also reflected in the exquisite moon phase dial. It features intricately hand-painted floral sprays in the spandrels, a separate second trac disc above pierced hands, and a unique calendar aperture below. Roman hour and Arabic minute numerals grace the dial's chapter ring. The cable wound, triple chime movement plays your choice of Westminster, Whittington, or St. Michael's chimes.

agreed to bid for the asbestos removal only. This has to be done according to EPA standards.

On a similar matter, Selectmen were informed by Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming that he recommended before the boiler is replaced at the fire station, Selectmen may want to have their own engineer look at the boiler to see exactly what caused the crack.

Selectmen noted the town does not have an engineer and further referred to a letter from Humphrey, Covill and Colęman, the insurance agency for Hartford Steam Boiler Insurance Company, holder of the town's policy on the boiler. The insurance indicated the crack in the boiler was not caused by an accident, but was caused by age, due to a thinning of metal due to corrosion; therefore, the insurance claim is disclaimed.

RECEIVED FROM Water/Sewer Superintendent William T. Nicholson an outline of ideas for proposed local mini-grants that might be funded as part of the Buzzards Bay Advisory Committee requests. The ideas were from Thomas E. Fantozzi, executive secretary of the Advisory Committee, of which the superintendent is a member.

The superintendent requested the board's input. In order of importance, Selectmen

Mr. Mathieson said in his letter, "I have completed three exhaust stakes that are in my building. I have yet to finish installing guide wire supports and lightning rods and ground wires on each stack. I plan to finish this on Saturday (November 19). I have three stacks cut through the roof of the building in the rear. I plan to cut the fourth through on Friday or Saturday. I plan rain or shine to erect all four stacks on Sunday. This past week, I received new filters, and by the 23rd I will receive the new filter racks, and hope to install them by the following Wednesday.

At that time he gave his opinion of the situation and offered some advice. Until I have the stacks and filter system up I will try to minimize the hours of spraying. Proposed Harbor Changes

PUBLIC HEARING HELD

About 60 persons, concerned about mooring and anchorage problems in the harbor and all Mattapoisett waters, attended an open hearing last Wednesday in the Town Hall Conference Room to hear the Selectmen and members of the Harbor Sub-Committee of the Mattapoisett Long Range Planning Committee outline proposed Harbormaster's rules and regulations.

Opened by Selectman Bernard F. Talty, the hearing, he noted, is designed to discuss the proposal, to receive suggestions and input from all those concerned with the harbor and its future. He added that all the proposals will be taken under advisement by the Selectmen and will have to be voted at the 1989 annual town meeting. A harbor chart, which was to have been included in the proposed changes, will be ready for the town meeting. Selectman Talty indicated there may have to be another hearing before the town meeting to include any changes.

The session was conducted by Michael J. Dahill, Chairman of the Harbor-Sub Committee, who explained input for the proposal was obtained from Harbormaster Steven Mach, Thomas Brownell of Brownell Boat Yard, William E. Fairweather of B and F Boats, Lewis I. Prouty, Jarvis C. Stratton of Blue Water Yachts, and Richard B. Young, and Arthur MacLean of Mattapoisett Boat Yard.

Mr. Dahill explained the plan covers the entire Mattapoisett waterfront and not just the harbor. Among the reasons for the proposed changes are: the level of management and control of the mooring area and to preserve open space in the harbor, a system to determine who owns the moorings; more complete list of boat owners so excise taxes can be collected more accurately (some 50 percent of excise taxes are not collected now); pollution in the shellfish beds; Chapter 91 waterfront regulations will affect the harbor. "If we don't act, the state will act," he said.

Mr. Dahill emphasized these changes are not designed to blatantly close Mattapoisett Harbor but to protect it.

The Harbormaster said that the rules and regulations are designed to get a handle on the problems that probably should have been addressed years ago. He added that the town must collect excise taxes from owners of moorings who do not live in town. He explained, "We started in August to re-register existing moorings and this will continue until April. Anyone who wants to register should get a form in the Selectmen's office, BUT the form has to be returned to me so that I can number the moorings."

Aucoot Cove asked if that section will have numbered moorings. Mr.Dahill said yes. He also stressed that failure to register for a mooring will result in the loss of mooring space.

If the proposal is passed at town meeting all fees and excise taxes collected will go into an Enterprise Fund. If passed in 1989, the rules will become effective after July 1, 1989. Mooring registration must be completed by September 1, 1989. Fees will begin to be payable for the 1990 season. In the legal opinion of Town Counsel the Enterprise Fund is legal and fees may be placed in an Enterprise Fund to be used, as proposed by the sub-committee, for physical improvement and maintenance of harbor facilities.

One resident asked if with the added cost "we are going to get any advantages"? Mr. Dahill said with the additional revenue which will not have to be turned over to the town's general revenue, the harbormaster will be able to get a boat and do some much needed repairs on the wharves.

Another boatowner said about four feet next to his mooring there is another boat. There should be something to look at when all these condo residents want to put out boats. Mr. Dahill said the town doesn't own the waters and no community can exclude the public from the waterfront -- "all we can do is be sure safety limits are exercised."

Another boat owner questioned why the age of 70 was used for no charge for mooring fees and boat sticker. Why not age 65, the retirement age so people on fixed incomes can enjoy the Mattapoisett harbor now. Selectman Talty said this issue will be looked at when revisions are discussed.

Mooring fees and sticker fees will include: private resident/property taxpayer, $25. per year; private non-resident/non-taxpayer, $100. per year; commercial (rental) moorings, $50. per year; and business moorings, $25. per year. Private resident/taxpayer at age 70 and over, no charge at this time proposed. Sticker fee for boats not on private moorings is $5. per year.

All boats in Mattapoisett waters whether on a mooring or in a slip for two weeks or longer must display a boat sticker at all times. Boats under 12 feet are exempt from boat stickers. No sticker will be issued without completion of the state tax form and a copy of the previous year's paid excise tax. Boats moored in town waters for four weeks or longer will be taxed for Mattapoisett.

The Harbormaster said new mooring spaces will be spotted only from Memorial Day to Labor Day, so that it can be determined

WHAT WE WANT TO DO WHEN WE GROW UP!

We have been talking about careers. On the computer we made signs showing what we want to be when we grow up. We put these signs in the showcase by the front door of the school. People enjoyed looking at them.

We asked people to come in and talk to us. We heard about all different kinds of jobs, such as dentist, doctor, state representative, flutist, art teacher, nurse, Navy commander, florist, caterer, suit manufacturer, book maker, and environmental chemist. We enjoyed all the people who came in. Thank you to all who gave time to talk to us.

We went on a field trip to Fisher and Rocha, Inc. They are a construction and real estate company. We walked there. Officer Ennis helped us to cross Route 6. When we got there, they showed us all around their workshop and office. Our favorite things were seeing the molding made, the telephone Fax machine, and the painting of Mattapoisett long ago.

At Halloween we had a party. Everyone came in dressed up as what he/she wanted to be when grown up. We read riddles eye talk

Q. Is it true that welding arcs and electrical sparks can fuse a contact lens to the eye?

A. No. This myth has been circulating for at least a dozen years but it has no basis in scientific fact.

Lenses in the opthalmic power range, which contact lenses are, could never concentrate rays so close to the surface.

Also, the heat from a welding arc or electrical spark is not intense enough to affect the durable plastic from which contact lenses are made.

The U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the American Optometric Association have issued statements that reports of welding arcs and electrical sparks fusing contacts to workers' eyes are false.

Of course, contact lenses are no substitute for proper safety eyewear. The eye protection required by OSHA for welding, brazing and soldering is the same with or without contacts.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON

The Marion Art Center's family entertainment for the holiday season will be a performance of "The Snowman" by Howard Blake on Sunday, December 11th, at 4:00 p.m. (not Saturday, December 17th as previously advertised). This classic story will be narrated by Marilyn Brown with Steve Massoud playing the piano score and Irina Weatherly performing and choreographing an original ballet. All three are members of the faculty at the Marion Art Center. Heather Corrigan, a dance student, will also perform with Ms. Weatherly.

Marilyn Brown, Suzuki piano specialist, graduated from Southern Illinois University and has taught at the Marion Art Center for three years. She also has performed in concert, and last year did a reading of "The Velveteen Rabbit" with an original musical score.

Steve Massoud is well-known in this area as a teacher in his own studio in New Bedford, Portsmouth Abbey, as well as at St. George's School, and the Marion Art Center. He also performs weekends at White's Restaurant and at St. James Church in New Bedford where he is music director. A versatile pianist, Mr. Massoud plays classical and contemporary music with unusual flair.

Irina Weatherley is a newcomer to this area. Originally from the midwest, Irina graduated from the University of Minnesota and also studied dance at Skidmore College, the Zurich Opera House in Switzerland, and Columbia College, Minnesota Dance Theater. She is an experienced choreographer and is currently on the staff of Roger Williams College. The Marion Art

Two recent general support grants awarded the Coalition were announced by Dr. Peterson, $30,000 from the Jessie B. Cox Charitable Trust of Boston, and $15,000 from the Island Foundation of Marion. Also, the Coalition is presently completing a $15,000 contract from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for its model public education project in the Buttermilk Bay area.

Dr. James Garvin at Friends

Dr. James Garvin, noted author, teacher and lecturer on early adolescence, will present "Understanding the Unique Needs of Early Adolescence - implications for Parents and Teachers" at 7 p.m. on Thursday, December 1st, at Friends Academy, 1088 Tucker Road, North Dartmouth. The public is invited.

Sponsored by the Friends' PTA, Dr. Garvin's talk, with discussion to follow, will introduce the physical, intellectual, social and emotional patterns "to help parents and teachers understand the normalcy of such behaviors in order to build positive relationships with the children during these years". As he has said, "These behaviors are no different than those most adults had to deal with in their own early adolescence except today, biologically and socially, it is occurring earlier."

Currently director of Middle School Education at Gordon College (where he has developed his own program, the only one of its kind in New England), Dr. Garvin has conducted over 180 workshops with teachers and parents on understanding Charles Dickens' immortal classic, "A Christmas Carol", is the story of the world's most famous miser, Ebenezer Scrooge, and his remarkable transformation one Christmas Eve to a wildly generous man. This musical adaptation is written by Charles Jones, Artistic Director of the Omaha Community Playhouse in Nebraska. It's a nostalgic, three-dimensional Christmas card with beautiful and authentic costumes and sets, along with stunning special effects.

The Nebraska Theatre Caravan, the professional touring wing of Omaha Community Playhouse, has been crisscrossing the country bringing Christmas cheer to thousands for ten years. The cast of 32 actors and actresses will maintain the original Dickens dialogue, accompanied by a four-piece chamber ensemble presenting a full array of traditional Christmas Carols. The carols

Year End Tax Tip

FROM INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

It's time for forecasting your tax liability. With only thirty days left in this calendar year, it's time for you to check your total tax due and compare it with your total expected payments.

"If you know your 1988 tax liability and find that you have been underpaying taxes, you should increase your tax withholding," said District Director Gerard R. Esposito.

To avoid underpayment penalties, 90% of 1988's tax or 100% of 1987's must be paid by January 15th. "If you have income earned by working you can increase your withholding by completing a new W-4 with your employer. If you are self-employed, or have only unearned income, such as interest and dividends, you probably should have been making estimated tax payments," said Esposito.

This last installment should be paid by using declaration voucher 4 found in the Form 1040-ES package, "Declaration of Estimated Tax for Individuals".

Taxpayers should be aware there is a

MEDICAL RECORDS TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM

If you're looking for a health career that includes computers and data gathering, a new program at Bristol Community College could be just the one for you, according to Hope Burns, division chairperson for health technologies and nursing.

"Medical records technology graduates find solid employment and a high starting salary with a two-year degree as an Accredited Records Technician," she said. Graduates who become ARTs can expect to earn up to $17,285 their first year.

Until now, local health care facilities, including Newport Hospital, St. Anne's Hospital, Sturdy Memorial Hospital, Clifton Geriatric Center, and St. Luke's Hospital have had trouble recruiting ARTs. Burns cites two reasons for this problem. "BCC will be the only college to offer this program in southeastern Massachusetts. Before this, the closest college offering medical records technology was in Boston. No college in Rhode Island offers the program. Hospitals could not persuade their medical secretaries to upgrade their skills because of the long commute, no matter what the financial benefits were," she said. "The second part of the problem is the lack of information community members have concerning medical records technology. Most people aren't sure that a medical records technician does. Medical care is structured in such a way that ARTs work in pivotal positions in the hospital. They gather all of a patient's information together and deal with the ethical and legal structure of the system. The allied health field is wide open and isn't limited to nursing and dental hygiene."

The new program also provides opportunities to individuals who want to begin a new career, according to Frank Noble, director of admissions. "The projected outlook for growth in this field points to at least 300 more jobs before 1995, needing far more training individuals than we could accommodate in most programs," said Noble.

Interested students can begin the program as early as this spring. "Although the medical records technology program formally opens in September 1989, prospective students can get a head start this spring, days or evenings, by taking their general education requirements. And medical secretaries may find many of their courses transferable to the program, which will help quicken their way to a better paying position."

Anyone interested in learning more about the new program should call Frank Noble at the College at 678-2811, ext. 179, to set up an appointment.

Soccer Dance Thank You

MARINER DANCE A BLAST

The annual Mariner Soccer Dance was recently held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Mattapoisett. A great time was had by all in attendance. Leo Hebert's music kept everyone jumping all night long.

As the coordinator for this year's dance, I would like to thank the following individuals and area businesses that helped me make this a dance to remember.

My wife Mary and her decorating crew of Dawn Sell, Kathy Hickey, Kate Webb, Sharon Dean, Terri Kagan, Jan Baker, Hay Judock, DeDe Smith and Patty DiPasqua; board members Betsy Pimental, Kathy and Mark Mahoney, Cecile and Richard Sanders and Glenn LeBlanc.

Victorian Christmas

THORNTON W. BURGESS SOCIETY

Share in a tradition as the Thornton W. Burgess Museum in historic Sandwich Village celebrates its annual "Victorian Christmas Open House" during the weekend of December 2nd, 3rd and 4th. Open house hours are from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, and 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

The nostalgia of Christmas past is evident from the front doorway adorned with fruits and live greens to the authentic period decor of each room and the old-fashioned tree decorated with candles, strung popcorn and cranberries, and small toys. The spice scents of hot punch and holiday goodies lead the visitor back into the keeping room to enjoy the soft strains of the harpist or the singing of old Christmas favorites. Off in one corner, the children's Discovery Room offers the chance for youngsters to make their own tree decorations.

On Sunday afternoon from 2 to 3 p.m. children from the Covenant Baptist Church of Forestdale perform a living creche on the museum grounds. Later that afternoon as Victorian Christmas comes to a close, all are invited to enjoy a Fireside Storytime at 4 p.m.

The Thornton W. Burgess Museum invites you to take a step back in time, to the spirit of Christmas past as we join other museums and shops in celebrating "Christmas in Olde Sandwich Village" during the first weekend of December.

The Burgess Museum remains open daily through December. Admission is by donation. For further information please call 888-6870.
